Daily Thought.
"Discretion is the teller in the game savings bank of life."

CUBAN SITUATION.
The St. Louis Globe-Democrat is positive that Cuba will be represented by another star in our flag and interprets military intervention to his government as permanent occupation of the island.
The Globe-Democrat has this to say:
In Cuba the inevitable has become the actual. The United States flag which has been raised over the palace and the rest of the government buildings in Havana will never be hauled down. That intervention which President Roosevelt disliked to order, has at last become imperative. As the heads of the Cuban government resigned, as that regime abdicated its functions, and as a motley horde of rebels were at the gates of Havana, the Washington authorities were compelled to step in so as to head off chaos. To the utmost limit at which non-interference was possible without inflicting disaster on the island and humiliation upon us, the United States withheld its hand. Even the most timid or obtuse of anti-imperialists will see that our government could no longer wait with safety or credit hold aloof. To slightly alter what Talne said of the ancient regime, "The Cuban republic was not killed by its enemies; it committed suicide." The United States troops which have entered Cuba not only carry with them order, stability, and an authority which will allow Cuba to meet its obligations to the rest of the world, but they carry an American sway which will be permanent.

There are a great many, it seems, who believe with the Globe-Democrat that the United States made a mistake in her haste to declare her belligerent intentions toward Cuba at the beginning of the war with Spain; but we doubt if the permanent occupation of the island would be popular just at this time. That the administration must have considered some contingency making an extended occupation necessary, goes without saying; but all indications point to the fact that the administration intends to restore order to the island, right whatever wrongs have been done and set the republic on its feet again—if possible. Complications may arise, of course, which will make the Globe-Democrat's prophecy true, but we anticipate a different ending of the trouble over there.

PALMA RETIRES.
Bids Farewell to Friends and Leaves Palace.
Havana, Oct. 3.—Ex-President Palma left the palace today bidding farewell to his apartments to his many friends. He departed for Matanzas without any demonstration.

While we are watching Taft in Cuba and giving heed to the more spectacular events in public life, let us not ignore the accomplishment of Secretary of State Root in South America. Our Latin-American neighbors in recent years have acquired the European fostered belief that the United States, under cover of the Monroe doctrine, designed to reduce them to the condition of provinces. This belief, of course, was strengthened when Hawaii, Porto Rico and the Philippines were annexed. None of Roosevelt's predecessors appreciated the importance of getting first hand information concerning South America. It was Secretary Root's mission to ascertain the sentiment and dispel any suspicions that might lurk in the susceptible Latin mind. His reception was a matter of doubt, but his frank exposition of our interpretation of the Monroe doctrine and the right hand of fellowship, which he extended on behalf of this nation, not only dispelled the suspicion, but has placed us on intimate terms with our neighbors, such as never before existed. Root is not a "man of the people," his raising and training have set him apart from the rest of us, but he is a patriot and stands for the right sort of Americanism wherever he is placed.

Broadway windows do the city credit, but this is a gala week. It is not sufficient that the merchants dress their windows in a manner suggestive of the event. The street should be decorated. A thousand strangers will be in the city tomorrow. Let the stores, offices, and residences be a riot of bunting and horse show colors. It will indicate to the visitors that we are interested in what is going on, and that Paducahans are capable of concerted action. Chicago would decorate for an event as important in proportion. Chicago used to decorate for less formal affairs. That spirit is what made her great.

As the day for the immigration convention draws nigh and the signs of success multiply, we cannot resist wondering if the members of the Commercial club realize what the success of this project means for their organization. They were its initiators, they must keep it going, and with the prestige thus established they must persist in their public works.

The whole country, including the great tribe of Smith, will applaud the action of the Utah authorities in arresting President Smith, of the Mormon church, for practicing polygamy. The Smith family is increasing at an appalling rate in every city, without any of them entering into polygamous relations.

Not the rigs, they can be washed; not the horses, for these are real roadsters in west Kentucky and used to the ground—but Milady's fine gown. O, why could not the elements comport themselves in keeping with the proper display of the Paducah dressmakers' art?

John D. Rockefeller has been restored to an anxious public. He was missed from church three Sundays in succession. We'll say for John, that such a report concerning the most of us would cause little apprehension.

Not intending to reflect on the omnipotence of the gods of the ancients, we cannot help suggesting that, perhaps, Jupiter Pluvius is in need of the aid of a plumber.

A New York cotton buyer committed suicide yesterday. No cotton sellers killing themselves.

WAR HEROES HELD INSINCERE.

Yale's President Criticizes Careers of Some Generals of Rebellion.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 3.—President Hadley, of Yale University, in giving the undergraduates their opening address of the year, criticized the careers of some of the Union generals in the civil war as lacking sincerity. "During the early years of the civil war," he said, "there were on the northern side a number of generals whose interest in the struggle was chiefly professional. They had been trained to lead their country's armies and they intended to lead them with skill and fidelity, but in the vital issues over which the north and south were fighting they had no special concern. Officers of this type wished to do their duty creditably, but their eyes were on the reports which would record the deeds and the army lists in which they could receive promotion rather than on the deep issues of the struggle. One after another these men dropped out and gave place to those whose military skill was sometimes less, but who were in the field to fight, not merely to get the credit of fighting."

DISORDERLY

AROUND THE LUNCH ROOM AND WERE FINED $10.

Two Graves County Citizens Pay for Excitement at the Illinois Central.

Sam Dorish and Ernest McNealy, of Graves county, tried to take charge of the Illinois Central station lunch stand this morning, but C. W. Cherry, who was in charge, objected. The two Graves county men tried to eject the night manager. Cherry "mixed in" and the two were hustled out. They remained near the door and used profanity. The train they intended taking home was late and it was daylight when they started down the track. Patrolman James Clark arrested them. This morning in police court they were fined $10 and costs, the costs to be divided.

Judge Puryear continued his decision in the cases against Ed Vasseur and Herman Williams for knowingly receiving stolen ice tickets. He will decide it this week.

Other cases: James Hare, disorderly conduct, dismissed on condition that he leave town; Pete Griffin, breach of peace, $5 and costs; Robbery Curry, colored, disorderly conduct, recognized for $100 to keep the peace toward Maude Curry for one year; Paducah Distilleries company, four warrants, selling liquor without a license, continued; Will McKinley, colored, housebreaking, continued.

LOVE LEADS TO ARREST.

Postal Clerk, Charged With Embezzlement, Risks Capture for Child.

Kankakee, Ill., Oct. 3.—Love for his baby son led to the arrest today of Edward Wood, a Kankakee post-office clerk, charged with embezzlement, who came home from New York City on learning that his child was seriously ill. A score of postal inspectors had been looking everywhere for the man without success for the past two weeks. Word reached Kankakee on a train at 1 o'clock in the morning. He was recognized by Shirley Mulsant of this city, who was a passenger on the same train. On the arrival of the train here Mulsant notified an officer, but Wood eluded the patrolman and reached his home, where he was afterward captured in bed after the house was surrounded.

Ten Thousand Dunkards.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 3.—The Southern Pacific railroad announces that 10,000 Dunkards are heading toward California from Iowa, Illinois, Missouri and Kansas. They are coming to form a large colony in Butte Valley, Risky county, where they have purchased 10,000 acres of land. They will locate two cities on the projected line of the Southern Pacific which will run from San Francisco to Portland via Glamant Falls, and will farm 10,000 acres. They will make Butte valley the largest Dunkard settlement in the world.

USES CAT AS TAIL FOR KITE

South Bend Youth Kills Animal After She Falls and Is Fined.

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 3.—D. A. Harding was fined in police court today on a charge of cruelty to animals. Harding, who has a fad for flying large kites, has had trouble in keeping them in the air because of a lack of ballast. To remedy this he caught his cat and tied her to the tail of his kite. Unbounded success followed, the kite soaring 300 feet before the cat slipped and fell to the ground, stunned but otherwise uninjured. To destroy evidence of his experiment, Harding killed the cat.

CORPSE AS A CHRISTMAS GIFT.

Man Seeks Divorce; Wife Threatened to Send Dead Body to Him.

LaPorte, Ind., Oct. 3.—Charles B. Andrew, of Portland, Ore., has brought action for divorce from his wife, Ella Zell Andrew, of this city, from whom she has been living apart for some time. Mrs. Andrew, it is charged, said she would end her life and send her lifeless clay, to her husband as a Christmas present. Andrew alleges his wife threatened to tear out his eyes and charges that she conspired to persecute him until he deeded her property valued at $15,000.

Another Silver Purchase.

Washington, Oct. 3.—The director of the mint today purchased 250,000 ounces of silver at 69.21 cents an ounce, delivered in Denver. Last purchase was at 68.76 cents.

While Americans take great pride and pleasure in being called "a strenuous people," it is perhaps not generally appreciated that a great many injure themselves physically—weak nervous systems, invite premature wrinkles, gray hairs and infirmities by the hurry, worry way in which they live, neglecting in many instances proper care of the body and letting the real pleasures of life escape as a forfeit. Unrestrained strenuousness means neurasthenia ultimately.

Neurasthenia is nerve-exhaustion and that means inefficiency of the body to carry on vital functioning. Nerve centers lag; debility ensues; listlessness and fatigue reign. Pain may be felt in the back; fullness or pressure at the top of the head; sleep is broken and without refreshment; digestion notably is weak and loss of appetite constipation and distress after eating are the rule. The headache of neurasthenia is like a band around the head; ordinarily is worse in the morning and better towards the end of day, and is probably the most common of all headaches which come for treatment.

Now, drugs do not help neurasthenia; that is admitted; and physicians have long been accustomed to send their neurasthenics away from the cities to the mountains, seashore, abroad or anywhere to find new scenes and enjoy tranquil restoration. But that is expensive and there is a surer, quicker and better as well as less costly way—Osteopathy.

Osteopathy cures neurasthenia, which is but another name for nervousness, by stimulation to the nerves and the circulation.

I can show you to your satisfaction in a very few minutes why osteopathy is the same rational cure for ALL diseases of the nerves.

Come to see me at any time between the hours of 9 and 12 in the forenoon and 2 and 5 in the afternoon. Dr. G. B. Frøage, 516 Broadway. Phone 1407.

LIST OF ENTRIES FOR FIRST NIGHT

Indicates Interest Taken By Many Horsemen.

Grounds and Seats in Excellent Condition and Only Bad Weather Can Mar Show.

MUSIC AND THE GRAND MARCH

Tonight is the horse's night. If the fickle elements will only be have nicely tonight, and the rest of the week, Paducah's second horse show will score a great success, as every other indication assures it.

Notwithstanding the rains of the past ten days, the grounds are in splendid condition, and the grandstand and boxes for the patrons are as dry as an ash box. The grounds committee has put in some good work this week. The stand has been protected from the weather and will have a curtain protection from the cool, night breezes. The boxes are covered, and every attention given that will make for the comfort of the patrons.

At the entrance to the grounds, and leading from the cars, sawdust has been sprinkled generously to make the passage dry, and this will be done every day. The entrance for the carriages will be from the road west of the grounds.

The program for tonight, the opening, is one of the best of the series, and will be carried out in every detail, the weather permitting. The musical drill, which is one of the best features, is on for tonight, and a glance at the program above will show the high character of the entire offerings.

The promoters are gratified with the entries for the events, and well they should be, for the horses showing here will take rank easily with the best that will compete at any of the horse shows this season.

The spirit of the event is in the very air, and every one, seemingly, will be among those present when the grand parade starts at 8 o'clock. There are forty-four boxes and nearly every one will be occupied, and the grand stand no doubt will be crowded to its capacity.

The Paducah Military band will furnish the music and the program for tonight is as follows:

Program Paducah Military band, horse show tonight:

Buffalo Bill's Equestrian March.
.....Chambers
"Old Hiedelberg," characteristic march.....Mills
"The Auto Race," a descriptive piece.....Missud
